pecial to The Washington Herald. Lynchburg, Va., Nov. Polytechnical Institute of Blacksburg, Va., maintained their excellent record for the season to-day by defeating the football team representing the George Washington University of Washington by a score of 16 to 5. Even at this score the Capital boys surprised most of their folowers who were at the game by the improvement in their play over former contests. The weakest point in the Hatchetites' play was their offense, the backs and forwards seldom making the required 10 yards. On the defense the team as a whole was stronger than expected against the attacks of Hodgson, Derby, and F. H. Legg, the V. P. I. backs. The ends did not show up as strongly

Philadelphia, Nov. 12 .- Pennsylvania and Michigan played for one hour on Franklin Field to-day, and neither side was able to score, either from the field or by touchdowns or safety touches. It was a scoreless tie game in which Michigan, by reason of their greater size and strength, held the upper hand, and had the team .F. emith been as proficient in the gentle art of playing football as was Pennsylvania, the Westerners would have won. Pennsylvania knew enough, but could not do play before they started, and only on forward passes was Pennsylvania able to gain ground. Scott kicked well, but his team mates were unable to recover the ball on any of the on-side kicks. In the second period Michigan came close to being whipped right then and there when Thompson fumbled a pass for a kick and Pennsylvania got the ball on downs on Michigan's 32-yard line. Scott failed to gain on the first play, and then Mercer got through for 15 yards goal. He took too much time, and the Mercer. full back. The Referee—Mr. Walter Eckersell, Chicago. Ur Mr. Crowell, Swarthmore. Pield judgs—Mr. shall, Harvard. Linesman—Mr. Beacham. C
